MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to unite and empower the Nigerian community in Georgia by celebrating our rich cultural diversity, uplifting local businesses, and promoting civic engagement to create a vibrant, inclusive environment where everyone feels valued.

GOALS

- Promote Nigerian Culture: Preserve and celebrate Nigerian cultural heritage within the Georgian community.
- Enhance Welfare: Improve the welfare and advancement of Nigerians in Georgia through various support programs.
- Foster Civic Engagement: Increase Nigerian residents' political awareness and civic responsibility.

Support Local Businesses: Promote and showcase Nigerian and African-owned businesses to strengthen the local economy.

OBJECTIVES

- Create the ANOG Community Hub: Establish a physical center for events, programs, and workshops to foster community cohesion and cultural celebration.
- Launch Linguistic Revival Programs: Work with member Associations to Fund language programs to preserve cultural heritage and improve communication within the diaspora.
- Community Partnerships: Partner with local non-profits, charities, businesses, corporations, and government agencies to provide a support network for those in need. This can include engaging our community, sharing resources, coordinating services, and jointly hosting events and workshops.
- Develop Empowerment Programs: Create job search initiatives, youth leadership training, and entrepreneurship boot camps.
- Host Annual Signature Events: Organize the All-Nigerian Cultural Day and Banquet Award events.
- Offer Health Workshops: Work with our member Associations to provide physical and mental health workshops tailored to the Nigerian/African community.
- Create Business Directories and Census: Develop a directory of Nigerian and African-owned businesses and conduct a census of Nigerians in Georgia.

ABOUT NIGERIA

THE NEW NIGERIA NATIONAL ANTHEM

Nigeria we hail thee,
Our own dear native land,
Though tribe and tongue may differ,
In brotherhood, we stand,
Nigerians all, and proud to serve
Our sovereign Motherland.

Our flag shall be a symbol
That truth and justice reign,
In peace or battle honour'd,
And this we count as gain,
To hand on to our children
A banner without stain.

O God of all creation,
Grant this our one request,
Help us to build a nation
Where no man is oppressed,
And so with peace and plenty
Nigeria may be blessed.

NATIONAL PRAYER

OH GOD OF CREATION
DIRECT OUR NOBLE CAUSE
GUIDE OUR LEADERS RIGHT
HELP OUR YOUTH THE TRUTH TO KNOW
IN LOVE AND HONESTY TO GROW
AND LIVING JUST AND TRUE
GREAT LOFTY HEIGHTS ATTAIN
TO BUILD A NATION WHERE PEACE AND JUSTICE REIGN.

EKO CLUB ATLANTA MARKS 25 YEARS OF UNITY AND SERVICE

BY THE ANOG COMMUNICATIONS TEAM

The Alliance of Nigerian Organizations in Georgia (ANOG) is proud to highlight a historic milestone achieved by our esteemed member association, Eko Club Atlanta (ECA). In March 2026, ECA celebrated its Silver Jubilee—a quarter-century of unwavering dedication to community service, cultural preservation, and the welfare of Nigerians both in Georgia and back home. This celebration was not merely a local event but a convergence of unity, as Eko Club chapters from across the United States traveled to Atlanta for a vibrant three-day occasion, bringing together family and friends under one banner.

A MULTI-STATE CONVERGENCE OF HERITAGE

The anniversary festivities transformed into a grand reunion of the broader Eko diaspora. Delegations from various U.S.-based Eko Club chapters descended upon Atlanta, turning the celebration into a pan-national showcase of solidarity. Over three days of programming, members engaged in:

- The “Walk for Life” Fun Run & Morning Exercise: Before his tenure in Nigeria, he was an Executive Director at the Georgia Professional Licensing Board in the U.S., showcasing his commitment to public service across borders.
- Strategic Dialogues: Roundtable discussions on fostering inter-chapter collaboration and amplifying humanitarian efforts.

- Community Outreach: Joint initiatives reinforcing the bond between the Atlanta chapter and the wider American-Eko network.
- Closing Prayer Worship Service: The festivities reached a solemn and uplifting conclusion with a unified prayer worship service. This gathering brought leaders, members, and guests together in thanksgiving for ECA's twenty-five years of grace. It served as a poignant reminder that our organizational strength is rooted in faith, offering a moment of spiritual renewal as we look toward the future.

This gathering exemplified ANOG's core aim of promoting harmony and peaceful co-existence among ethnic groups while celebrating our unique identities. This spirit of patience, unity, and collective growth was palpable throughout the weekend.

RECOGNITION OF EXCELLENCE

ECA's impact has been formally recognized at the highest levels of civic engagement. On March 19, 2026, the State of Georgia honored ECA with Senate Resolution 575, acknowledging their 25 years of outstanding dedication to humanitarian service. The resolution cemented their status as a vital asset to our diverse society, citing their impactful medical missions to Lagos, food drives in Atlanta, and robust scholarship programs that empower the next generation.

WELCOMING A NEW ERA

As we celebrate this milestone, we also look forward with optimism to the future under the dynamic leadership of Hon. Olawunmi Isiotan. Her election marks the beginning of a new chapter, poised to elevate ECA's impact through renewed vision and strategic expansion. Under her administration, ECA continues to set a standard of excellence that inspires all member associations within ANOG.

ANOG'S COMMITMENT TO PARTNERSHIP

To the entire membership of Eko Club Atlanta: thank you for your selfless contributions and for demonstrating the power of organized diaspora action. Your ability to mobilize chapters across the country serves as a model for inter-African collaboration—a key strategic goal identified in our March 2026 executive meetings.

ANOG looks forward to witnessing your continued growth and wishes you a productive and glorious next quarter-century of service. Let us continue to build bridges, share resources, and celebrate the diverse tapestry of Nigeria within the heart of Georgia.

Eko O Ni Ba Je O!!!

Editor's Note: Photos and highlights from the 3-day Anniversary celebration are available in the digital edition of this newsletter. For more information on upcoming ECA events or how to support their scholarship fund, please contact the ECA Secretariat.

ANOG CELEBRATES CULTURAL UNITY AT EFIK NATIONAL CONVENTION

In a powerful demonstration of our commitment to cultural preservation and diaspora unity, ANOG President, Kayode Adekunle and First Lady represented the Alliance of Nigerian Organizations in Georgia at the July 2025 Efik National Convention held in Atlanta. This participation underscores ANOG's mission to champion Nigerian heritage while fostering collaboration among diverse ethnic communities within our organization.

Empowering Through Education and Development

The convention served as a pivotal fundraising and awareness platform for critical Efik community initiatives that align with ANOG's broader goals of member welfare and civic responsibility:

- Educational Excellence: College scholarships supporting deserving students across the United States and Efik Communities in Nigeria.

- Healthcare Access: Medical missions serving underserved communities in Cross River State
- Medical Infrastructure: Shipment of essential medical supplies to hospitals in Nigeria for treatment of indigenes
- Community Resilience: Disaster relief efforts supporting devastated communities both in the U.S. and Cross River State

A Celebration of Living Heritage

The evening's crowning achievement was an extraordinary showcase of authentic Efik culture, offering attendees an immersive experience of traditional artistry. The masquerade performances included distinguished displays of Obio Okpo, Utu Ekpe, Ofiom Inyang, Ekong Ikong Ukom, and Korikori Nniong Nniong—each representing centuries of cultural wisdom and spiritual significance.

This vibrant presentation embodied the very essence of ANOG's fifth aim: promoting harmony and peaceful co-existence among ethnic groups through shared appreciation and mutual respect.

Recognition of Dedicated Leadership

ANOG extends profound gratitude to key leaders whose unwavering commitment made this celebration possible:

- Dr. Sandy Ansari-Hogan, Efik Association President, whose generous leadership guided the entire evening
- Mr. Victor Igori, Immediate Past President of Efik Atlanta
- Mr. Tunji Roberts, Current Vice President
- Princess (Mrs.) Nike Roberts and Madam Hope Ibekwe, who provided exceptional cultural education throughout the event

Special recognition goes to these dedicated individuals for taking time to explain the complex myriads of masquerade performances, ensuring ANOG President and First Lady understood not just what they were witnessing, but the deep cultural narratives each performance represents.

Strengthening Our Collective Mission

This partnership exemplifies how ANOG members benefit from active inter-ethnic collaboration—a principal President Adekunle emphasized during our March 19, 2026, Executive Committee meeting. As he noted regarding reciprocal support: “I don’t want people to only love us when they’re doing something... it should be reciprocal all the time.”

Through events like this, ANOG continues building bridges across Nigeria’s rich cultural diversity while advancing our shared vision of community empowerment and cultural pride.

Strengthening Ties with Clayton County Leadership

As part of our ongoing mission to deepen partnerships between the Nigerian diaspora and local government, the Alliance of Nigerian Organizations in Georgia (ANOG) is proud to highlight our recent strategic engagements with county leadership across the state. Following productive visits to Cobb County and Henry County, ANOG President Kayode Adekunle paid a formal visit to Dr. Alieka Anderson Henry, Chairwoman of Clayton County—a pivotal step toward fostering collaboration on economic growth, cultural exchange, and civic empowerment.

A DIALOGUE OF SHARED VISION

During her meeting with President Adekunle, Chairwoman Henry emphasized Clayton County's commitment to "economic growth, streamlined social service delivery, and community philanthropy." Her vision resonated deeply with ANOG's core mission, particularly in areas such as:

- Resource Accessibility: Championing the "Get Raindrops" mobile application to unify fragmented nonprofit entry programs into a single, empowering hub for residents.
- Direct Community Investment: Prioritizing tangible support over ceremonial recognition, exemplified by her approach of "giving out checks rather than awards."
- Cultural Collaboration: Expressing strong support for initiatives like the Nigeria Cultural Day Festival as catalysts for cross-community understanding.

Chairwoman Henry also extended an invitation to ANOG members to join her at the upcoming Chairwoman's Ball—an event embodying the spirit of partnership we seek to nurture.

NIGERIA CULTURAL DAY: A TRIUMPH OF PARTNERSHIP

The synergy between ANOG and Clayton County culminated in Chairwoman Henry's gracious attendance at our Nigeria Cultural Day celebration on October 11 at Clayton County International Park. Her presence underscored the county's dedication to celebrating diversity and supporting local nonprofits. Key highlights included:

- Engagement with Vendors: The Chairwoman enthusiastically sampled traditional African cuisine and engaged with Nigerian entrepreneurs showcasing their goods.
- Recognition of Impact: Her inspiring remarks on Clayton County's progress and genuine conversations with guests highlighted her unwavering commitment to community empowerment.
- Future Collaborations: Both parties expressed enthusiasm about expanding the reach of "Get Raindrops" and amplifying cultural exchange through future events.

As shared during the event, ANOG has formally invited Chairwoman Henry to return for next year's celebration—ideally at a location she recommended—to further strengthen this growing partnership.

LOOKING AHEAD

This engagement exemplifies ANOG's strategic pivot toward relationship-based funding and intergovernmental collaboration. By aligning with leaders who prioritize practical solutions over performative gestures, we are building a sustainable framework for community impact. Upcoming milestones include:

- Cobb County International Festival (June/July 2026): Continuing our outreach to Metro Atlanta counties.
- Nigeria Cultural Day (September 26, 2026): Celebrating excellence in diaspora contributions.
- Banquet Awards (October 24, 2026): Celebrating excellence in diaspora contributions.
- Digital Evolution: Leveraging our new Executive App and 5,000-member database to enhance targeted outreach.

We extend our deepest gratitude to Chairwoman Dr. Alieka Anderson Henry for her warm hospitality, insightful dialogue, and steadfast dedication to community empowerment. Together, we are proving that when governments and diaspora organizations unite, the results uplift entire communities.

MEET OUR NEW ASSOCIATION PRESIDENTS

INTRODUCING THE LEADERS SHAPING OUR COMMUNITY

Hon. Adewunmi Isiotan

President: Eko Club Atlanta Service Tenure:
2007 – Present

A LEGACY OF SERVICE, A FUTURE OF UNITY

Hon. Adewunmi Isioatan stands as a pillar of the Nigerian diaspora in the United States, currently serving as the President of Eko Club Atlanta. With a career in community leadership spanning nearly two decades, Honorable Isiotan has transformed her role from a dedicated volunteer to a visionary executive, guiding one of Atlanta's most vibrant cultural organizations. Her leadership philosophy is rooted in a singular truth: that leadership is not a title to be worn, but a sacred trust to be honored through service, integrity, and an unwavering commitment to the upliftment of the community.

THE FOUNDATION OF A LEADER: FROM VOLUNTEER TO VISIONARY

Honorable Isiotan's journey with Eko Club Atlanta began in 2007, marking the start of a nineteen-year odyssey of growth, purpose, and steadfast dedication. For nearly two decades, the organization has served as a cornerstone of her life, shaping her values and refining her approach to governance.

Honorable Isiotan's ascent to the presidency was not a sudden elevation but the result of years of hands-on service. Before assuming the helm, she served in critical operational roles, including Social Secretary and Treasurer. In these capacities, she did not merely manage tasks; she strengthened the very architecture of the organization. As Social Secretary, Honorable Isiotan fostered unity and vibrancy, ensuring that every member felt connected to the club's spirit. As Treasurer, she instilled fiscal discipline and transparency, reinforcing the trust that binds the membership.

These formative years taught her a fundamental lesson: the strength of any organization lies not in its hierarchy, but in the unity of its people and the depth of their engagement. This experience grounded her leadership in humility, proving that true authority is earned through contribution, not conferred by position.

LEADERSHIP THROUGH ACTION: THE HUMANITARIAN IMPERATIVE

At the core of Honorable Isiotan's leadership is a profound commitment to humanitarian service. While she has overseen numerous community outreach initiatives, her tenure is perhaps most defined by her leadership and spearheading a medical mission to Lagos, Nigeria.

This initiative was more than a logistical endeavor; it was a transformative experience that brought the club's mission to life. Witnessing the tangible impact of their efforts—providing healthcare, resources, and hope to individuals and communities in Lagos—solidified her leadership philosophy. It reinforced her belief that “leadership is only as effective as the hope it restores and the lives it improves.”

For Honorable Isiotan, leadership must transcend rhetoric. It must translate into meaningful action that creates lasting, measurable impact. Whether organizing local charity drives in Georgia or coordinating large-scale medical missions in Nigeria, her approach remains consistent: identify a need, mobilize resources, and execute with precision and compassion.

A VISION FOR THE FUTURE: THREE PILLARS OF PROGRESS

As President, Hon. Isiotan has articulated a forward-looking agenda designed to ensure Eko Club Atlanta remains a dynamic force for generations to come. Her vision is anchored by three strategic pillars:

■ 1. Unity and Inclusion

Honorable Isiotan envisions a “forward-thinking organization” where diversity within the membership is celebrated. Her goal is to build an environment where every member, regardless of their background or tenure, feels valued, heard, and empowered. By fostering a culture of inclusivity, she aims to deepen the sense of belonging that makes Eko Club a true “family” rather than just an association.

■ 2. Youth Empowerment

Recognizing that the longevity of the club depends on the next generation, Hon. Isiotan has prioritized mentorship and leadership development. She is committed to creating structured pathways for young members to engage with the organization, learn from seasoned leaders, and eventually take on roles of responsibility. This investment ensures that the legacy of Eko Club is not merely preserved but elevated by fresh perspectives and energy.

■ 3. Expanding Our Reach

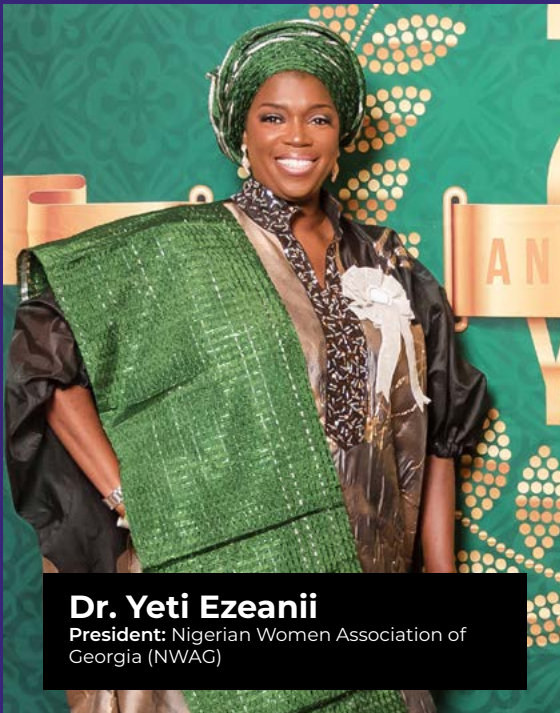

Looking beyond the immediate community, Honorable Isiotan seeks to position Eko Club Atlanta as a global ideal of cultural excellence. This involves strengthening partnerships with other diaspora organizations, local institutions, and international bodies. By increasing visibility and expanding the scope of their impact, she aims to demonstrate the power of the Lagos community as a model for cultural preservation and civic engagement worldwide.

MOVING FORWARD TOGETHER

Hon. Adewunmi Isiotan views Eko Club Atlanta as more than an organization; it is a living testament to the resilience and spirit of the Lagos people. Her presidency is being characterized by a deep respect for the club's rich history of service and cultural preservation, coupled with a bold drive for innovation.

As she leads the club into the future, her focus remains on strengthening unity, deepening member engagement, and expanding their collective footprint. She is dedicated to building upon the strong foundation laid by her predecessors while steering the organization toward a future defined by purpose, cultural pride, and enduring impact.

“Together,” Honorable Isiotan affirms, “we are not just preserving our heritage—we are building a legacy that will endure for generations to come.”

Dr. Yeti Ezeanii

President: Nigerian Women Association of Georgia (NWAG)

A LEGACY OF COMPASSION, A VISION FOR GLOBAL EMPOWERMENT

Dr. Yeti Ezeanii is a distinguished philanthropist, community leader, and the current President of the Nigerian Women Association of Georgia (NWAG). A devoted wife and mother, Dr. Ezeanii has dedicated her life to the service of others, channeling her passion for humanitarian work into transforming the lives of countless individuals across Georgia and Nigeria. Since joining NWAG in 2014, she has emerged as an important force within the organization, driving initiatives that bridge the gap between the diaspora and the homeland through education, healthcare, and economic empowerment.

A Journey of Dedicated Service

Dr. Ezeanii's tenure with NWAG, the largest Nigerian women's charity organization in Georgia, began in 2014. Her ascent to the presidency was not a singular event but the result of a decade of tireless, hands-on service. She has held every major executive office within the association, gaining a comprehensive understanding of its operations and mission:

- Public Relations Chair: Shaping the organization's narrative and fostering community connections.
- Fundraising Chair: Spearheading campaigns that secured vital resources for charitable initiatives.
- Assistant Secretary: Streamlining administrative functions and ensuring organizational transparency.
- Vice President: Providing strategic oversight and supporting the executive team.

Now, as President, Dr. Ezeanii brings this wealth of institutional knowledge to the helm, guiding NWAG into its next chapter of growth and impact. Her leadership style is defined by a relentless work ethic and a deep-seated belief that service is the highest form of leadership.

THE POWER OF NWAG: 26 YEARS OF IMPACT

Under Dr. Ezeanii's leadership, NWAG continues to uphold a 26-year legacy of excellence. As an award-winning organization, NWAG operates as a dual force for good, delivering critical support in both the United States and Nigeria.

LOCAL IMPACT (METRO ATLANTA & GEORGIA):

Education: Providing extensive scholarships to high school and college students.

Volunteerism: Contributing over 5,000 volunteer hours annually to local charities, medical centers, and disaster relief efforts.

Cultural Enrichment: Organizing programs that celebrate Nigerian heritage and foster youth development.

GLOBAL IMPACT (NIGERIA):

■ Scholarships: Awarding over 1,000 scholarships to female college students across all 36 states of Nigeria, breaking barriers for women in education.

■ Healthcare: Shipping over $3 million in medical supplies to underserved regions and collaborating on medical missions.

■ Social Welfare: Supporting orphan nutrition programs and leading anti-trafficking initiatives to protect vulnerable populations.

Through these sustained efforts, NWAG serves as a vital bridge, connecting the resources of the diaspora with the urgent needs of the homeland.

A VISION FOR THE FUTURE: EXPANDING THE HORIZON

As President, Dr. Ezeanii has articulated a bold vision to broaden NWAG's reach and deepen its impact. Her strategic roadmap focuses on five key pillars:

■ 1.Global Expansion: Actively working to increase NWAG's global footprint, ensuring the organization's influence extends beyond current borders.

■ 2.Women's Economic Empowerment: Launching initiatives to support women entrepreneurs, providing them with the tools, training, and capital needed for economic independence.

■ 3. Educational Advancement: Enhancing scholarship programs and introducing vocational training to equip young women with practical skills for the modern workforce.

■ 4. Resource Mobilization: Improving fundraising strategies and expanding the donor base to ensure the financial sustainability of NWAG's ambitious projects.

■ 5. Strategic Partnerships: Forging alliances with like-minded organizations to amplify impact and drive systemic change.

Dr. Ezeanii believes that true empowerment comes from a holistic approach that combines education, economic opportunity, and health awareness. Her leadership ensures that NWAG remains a beacon of hope, inspiring individuals to rise above adversity.

CORE VALUES AND CALL TO ACTION

Guided by the core values of Community, Empowerment, and Service, NWAG under Dr. Ezeanii's presidency is poised for unprecedented growth. The organization remains committed to its mission of uplifting communities and making a lasting difference in the lives of the less fortunate.

Dr. Ezeanii extends an invitation to like-minded individuals, corporations, and organizations to join forces with NWAG. Together, they can create lasting changes, drive positive development, and secure a brighter future for generations to come.

"With collective effort and unwavering dedication, we will continue to serve as a beacon of hope, turning compassion into action and dreams into reality." — Dr. Yeti Ezeanii

Dr. Chinwe “Chichi” Okoli
DNP-Ed, MSN-HI, RN, LFP
President: Nigerian Nurses Association of Georgia (NNAG)

BRIDGING CLINICAL EXCELLENCE, FINANCIAL FREEDOM, AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Dr. Chinwe Okoli, affectionately known as Dr. Chichi, is a distinguished healthcare leader, educator, and clinical informatics specialist whose career spans over 35 years. A licensed independent financial professional and the founder of Sparkling Star Development Strategies LLC, Dr. Okoli uniquely bridges the gap between clinical practice and financial empowerment. Currently serving as the President of the Nigerian Nurses Association of Georgia (NNAG), she brings a wealth of experience, a visionary approach to leadership, and an unwavering commitment to the well-being of nurses and the broader community.

A Journey Rooted in Service and Education

Dr. Okoli's nursing journey began in Nigeria, where she established her foundation as a nurse and midwife. She honed her clinical skills at the School of Nursing, Iyi-Enu, and the School of Midwifery, Aba (now part of Abia State Teaching Hospital), before earning her undergraduate degree from the prestigious University of Nigeria, Nsukka, Enugu Campus.

Driven by a desire to expand her expertise, she relocated to the United States to pursue advanced studies. There, she earned a Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) with a specialization in Healthcare Informatics and a Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) in Educational Leadership from Grand Canyon University. This unique combination of clinical, technological, and educational training has positioned her as a versatile leader capable of navigating the complexities of modern healthcare systems.

Beyond her clinical credentials, Dr. Okoli is the host of “Take Charge with Dr. Chichi™,” a transformational platform dedicated to helping nurses and healthcare professionals overcome burnout. Through this initiative, she empowers clinicians to achieve clarity, confidence, and financial freedom, addressing a critical gap in the profession.

LEADERSHIP TRAJECTORY: FROM VOLUNTEER TO PRESIDENT

Dr. Okoli's tenure with the NNAG is a testament to sustained service and organic growth. She attended her first NNAG meeting in late 2013, immediately connecting with the organization's mission to uplift the Nigerian nursing community. Since then, she has held a series of focal leadership roles, each deepening her understanding of organizational dynamics:

- Public Relations Officer / Social Director (2017–2021): Serving two tenures, she revitalized the association's public image and fostered a vibrant social culture among members.
- Vice President (2021–2025): In two consecutive terms, she provided strategic oversight and supported the executive team in driving organizational goals.

■ Committee Leadership: She has chaired numerous critical committees, including IT, Newsletter, Education, and the Walkathon Committee, demonstrating versatility in both administrative and operational domains.

Her ascent to the presidency in 2025 was a natural culmination of her dedication. Inspired by a passion for excellence and a desire to create systemic change, she stepped forward to lead the NNAG into a new era of impact.

In addition to her role in Georgia, Dr. Okoli serves as the Vice President of the National Association of Nigerian Nurses in North America (NANNNA) and chairs the NANNNA Education Committee, extending her influence on the national stage. She is also an active member of the American Nursing Informatics Association (ANIA) and the Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing.

Key Achievements: Impact in Action

Under Dr. Okoli's guidance, the NNAG has achieved significant milestones in community health and professional development:

1. The NNAG Walkathon for Sickle Cell Awareness (2019) As Chairperson of the Walkathon Committee (2018–2020), Dr. Okoli spearheaded a highly successful community-driven fundraising campaign. The event raised substantial funds to support organizations caring for individuals with sickle cell disease in both the United States and Nigeria. This initiative highlighted the power of collective action in addressing critical health disparities.

2. Combating Nurse Burnout Recognizing the epidemic of burnout in healthcare, Dr. Okoli founded the "Burnout to Breakthrough" movement. Her upcoming seminar, "Pause. Heal. Reset. Rise" (scheduled for May 2, 2026), is designed to equip healthcare professionals with practical tools for personal restoration and financial independence. This work underscores her holistic approach to nursing leadership, addressing not just clinical skills but the mental and financial well-being of the practitioner.

Vision for the Term: Elevate, Empower, Expand

As President, Dr. Okoli has articulated a comprehensive vision centered on five core pillars: Community Outreach, Professional Development, Financial Empowerment, Member Engagement, and Wellness.

Her strategic plan leverages the strength of the NNAG's committee structure to drive specific initiatives:

- Education & Mentorship: Mentoring the next generation of nurses and hosting health fairs to promote quality healthcare practices.
- Wellness & Advocacy: Addressing domestic violence and promoting mental health through dedicated committees.
- Financial Literacy: Integrating financial empowerment strategies into the professional development curriculum for members.
- Grant Writing & Welfare: Securing resources to support members and community initiatives.

By strengthening the affiliation with NANNNA, Dr. Okoli aims to expand the NNAG's reach, creating broader opportunities for members to lead and make a meaningful impact across North America.

Personal Life and Legacy

Dr. Okoli is a devoted family woman, married to Sir. Kozy Okoli for over 31 years. They are the proud parents of three adult children. Her life outside of professional duties is equally rich, marked by active leadership in her church ministries and various community organizations.

Her leadership philosophy is simple yet profound: "United, we will continue to rise, lead with excellence, and create a lasting impact in our communities." As she guides NNAG forward, Dr. Okoli remains an example of hope, reminding the nursing community that true leadership is about service, collaboration, and the relentless pursuit of a better future for all.

Michael Omotayo

President: Akure Oloyemekun Association
Atlanta Chapter

BIOGRAPHY

Michael Omotayo is a dedicated community leader and the current President of Akure Oloyemekun Association Atlanta Chapter, a role he assumed in February 2026. With over a decade of committed service to the organization, Mr. Omotayo has established himself as a steadfast advocate for community development, educational advancement, and cross-cultural philanthropy.

His journey with Akure Oloyemekun Association began in 2014, marking the start of an eleven-year tenure of active engagement and leadership. For approximately eight years, until January 2026, he served as the Association Secretary, where he managed administrative operations, facilitated communications, and maintained institutional records. This foundational period equipped him with comprehensive knowledge of the organization's structure, mission, and community needs—preparation that would prove invaluable as he transitioned into the presidency.

Leadership & Philanthropy

Under Mr. Omotayo's stewardship, the Atlanta chapter has pursued a multifaceted approach to community service spanning both the Nigerian diaspora and the broader American community. His portfolio of initiatives includes:

- Educational Investment: He established scholarship programs benefiting students in both Atlanta and Akure, Nigeria, recognizing education as a cornerstone of sustainable development. These programs serve as a bridge between the diaspora and homeland, investing in the next generation of leaders across geographic boundaries.
- Social Welfare: Mr. Omotayo championed welfare packages for widows in Akure, addressing the economic vulnerabilities faced by widowed women in the community. His commitment extends to regular visits and donations to orphanages and the Ago-Ireti community, demonstrating consistent engagement with underserved populations.
- Community Engagement: Beyond the Nigerian diaspora, he has overseen charity works throughout Georgia, fostering inclusive community relationships. Within the Atlanta community, he has maintained beloved traditions including the annual Christmas celebration for children and the annual general picnic—events that strengthen familial bonds and cultural continuity.

Vision for the Future

As President, Mr. Omotayo has articulated a forward-looking agenda focused on four strategic pillars:

- 1. Program Enhancement: Revamping existing scholarship and charity outreach initiatives in both Akure and Georgia, with improved structures and expanded impact
- 2. Youth Engagement: Creating intentional pathways for younger generations to participate meaningfully in association activities and leadership
- 3. Organizational Growth: Strengthening the association through increased membership, higher participation rates, and enhanced institutional capacity
- 4. Member Welfare: Developing comprehensive benefit systems that support association members and their families

Community Impact

Mr. Omotayo's leadership reflects a broader commitment to the mission of Nigerian hometown associations—organizations that preserve cultural heritage, facilitate development in home communities, and provide social safety nets for diaspora members. His work exemplifies how immigrant communities can maintain meaningful ties to their origins while contributing positively to their adopted homes.

His approach balances respect for tradition with innovation, ensuring that Akure Oloyemekun Association remains relevant and effective in meeting contemporary community needs.

Personal Philosophy

At the core of Mr. Omotayo's leadership is a belief in collective responsibility and intergenerational solidarity. He views the association not merely as an organization but as a living community where each member contributes to shared prosperity and cultural preservation. His emphasis on youth participation signals a commitment to sustainability—ensuring that the work begun today will continue through those who will lead tomorrow.

Madam Alice Chat Osunde
President: Zumunta Association USA Inc.
 (Georgia Chapter)

BREAKING BARRIERS, BUILDING BRIDGES: A LEGACY OF LEADERSHIP

Madam Alice Chat Osunde stands as a historic figure in the Nigerian diaspora community, currently serving as the President of the Zumunta Association USA Inc. (Georgia Chapter). A mother of two, Yashim and Faith, and a native of Southern Kaduna State, Nigeria, Madam Osunde brings over two decades of community service, grassroots mobilization, and executive leadership to her role. Her appointment marks a significant milestone: she is the first woman in the history of Zumunta USA Inc. to serve as President of a chapter, a testament to her capability, vision, and the trust placed in her by the organization's elders and members.

A DECADES-LONG COMMITMENT TO THE DIASPORA

Madam Osunde's journey of service began in her home state of Kaduna. She is a graduate of Kaduna Polytechnic, Nigeria, and furthered her expertise through specialized courses in Rural and Community Development at the Ministry of Rural and Community Development in Benin City (Edo State) and the University of Nigeria, Nsukka.

Her early leadership was defined by a commitment to women's empowerment. She served as the Chairperson of the Civil Service Women's Wing in Kaduna State, where she acted as a grassroots mobilizer. In this capacity, she organized women across all local government areas, providing training in business management and self-sufficiency projects. Her work helped countless women improve their livelihoods and support their families, laying the groundwork for her future role as a community builder.

A Decades-Long Commitment to the Diaspora

Since relocating to Georgia two decades ago, Madam Osunde has been a cornerstone of the Nigerian community. Her resume of service is extensive and diverse:

- Founding Member: She was a founding member of the Nigerian Women Association of Georgia (NWAG), helping to establish a vital support network for Nigerian women in the state.
- Past Leadership: She previously served as the President of the Alliance Nigeria Organization of Georgia (ANOG), demonstrating her ability to lead large, diverse organizations.
- Regional Advocacy: She currently serves as the President of Southern Kaduna People in the Diaspora (SOKADUSA), advocating for the specific needs and interests of her people.

- Zumunta Leadership: Her relationship with Zumunta USA Inc. is historic. She previously broke the glass ceiling as the first female President of the Atlanta Chapter. Now, called upon once again by the elders and membership, she has accepted the mantle of leadership to guide the Georgia chapter forward.

The Mission of Zumunta Association USA Inc.

Under Madam Osunde's guidance, the Georgia chapter aligns with the broader mission of Zumunta Association USA Inc., a non-profit organization founded in 1991 in New York. As an umbrella organization for Northern Nigerians in the United States, Zumunta is dedicated to:

- Promoting technological, social, and economic development in Northern Nigeria.
- Preserving Nigerian culture and heritage.
- Improving Nigeria's global image through positive engagement.

Key National Achievements of Zumunta:

- Education: Awarded scholarships to over 5,000 science students in Northern Nigeria, with over ₦100 million disbursed to date.
- Health & Welfare: Partnered with over 30 NGOs to implement health projects and provide palliative support to underserved communities.
- Technology & Innovation: Launched initiatives to train 1,000 youths in ICT and Artificial Intelligence (AI), with major conventions planned for 2025.
- Global Engagement: Successfully hosted annual conventions in Nigeria twice, with the most recent held in 2025 in Lafia, Nasarawa State, focusing on diaspora engagement and national development.

Vision for the Georgia Chapter

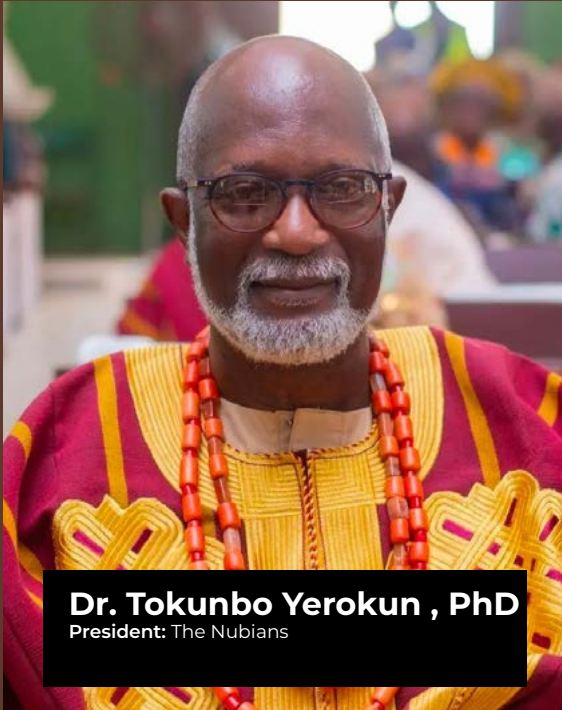

Madam Osunde's return to the presidency is driven by a clear vision: to move the Georgia chapter forward with renewed energy and strategic focus. She aims to:

- 1. Strengthen Community Ties: Foster deeper connections between the diaspora and their home communities in Northern Nigeria.
- 2. Expand Development Projects: To leverage the chapter's resources to support educational and health initiatives in the North.
- 3. Empower Women and Youth: Continue her lifelong mission of empowering women and equipping the next generation with skills for the future.
- 4. Preserve Culture: Ensure that the rich cultural heritage of Northern Nigeria is celebrated and passed down to the younger generation born in the diaspora.

A CALL TO UNITY

Madam Osunde's leadership is a powerful symbol of progress and inclusivity. By breaking gender barriers within a traditional organization, she has paved the way for future generations of women leaders. Her message to the community is one of unity and purpose: "Together, we can build a stronger future for our people, preserve our culture, and make a lasting impact on the world."

As the Georgia chapter moves forward under her stewardship, it stands ready to continue the legacy of service, development, and cultural pride that defines Zumunta USA Inc.

Dr. Tokunbo Yerokun , PhD
President: The Nubians

A LEGACY OF SERVICE AT THE INTERSECTION OF SCIENCE AND COMMUNITY

A distinguished Research Scientist specializing in Genetic Toxicology and an educator with decades of experience, Dr. Yerokun bridges the gap between academic excellence and grassroots community empowerment.

Originally from Iseyin, Oyo State, Nigeria, Dr. Yerokun has dedicated his career to uplifting individuals of Nigerian descent across Georgia.

BUILDING BRIDGES: TWO DECADES OF STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP

Since joining The Nubians in 2002, Dr. Yerokun has been part of the organization transformation of support and unity. His leadership journey, spanning vital roles such as Secretary and key membership assignments.

Key areas of Impact:

- Fostering Unity & Remembrance: Co-initiated fundraising drive of the Annual Memorial Day Tennis Tournament (2008) on the historic campus of Morehouse College. This event honors late community leaders Mr. Seni Ajao and Mr. Ladun Esan, serving not just as a sporting competition, but as a unifying gathering that strengthens family ties and communal bonds.
- Civic Voice & Communication: Launching and publishing several editions of The Nubians Quarterly Newsletter, a high-quality publication designed to amplify the voices within the diaspora.
- The Nubian Global Initiative: Proposed long-term program where the Club acts as a surrogate family for children affected by severe trauma such as parental loss, abandonment, etc.; by providing sustained mentorship and practical support like fully funded education. Partnering with relief agencies to identify beneficiaries, offering transformative, intergenerational impact rather than temporary aid.
- Investing in the Future: Like all Nubians, Dr. Yerokun takes pride in the Nubians $50,000 plus Higher Education Scholarship Legacy. This flagship achievement represents a cumulative investment in the next generation of Nigerian scholars in Georgia, directly supporting The Nubians educational excellence and social mobility.

Vision Forward: Sustaining a Vibrant Future

As President, Dr. Yerokun's mandate is clear: Sustain, Transition, and Expand.

His strategic vision focuses on preserving Nubians successful programs while actively facilitating a seamless generational transition. He is passionately committed to mentoring younger leaders, ensuring that the Nubians culture of excellence and scholarship continues to thrive long into the future. As Dr. Yerokun states:

"Together, these programs form a robust framework for our association, honoring our past while securing a vibrant, educated, and compassionate future for the next generation."

An Accomplished Author: Preserving Heritage Through the Written Word

Dr. Yerokun's commitment to cultural pride and intellectual excellence extends well beyond organizational leadership. He is also an accomplished author. His books are available on Amazon and include but are not limited to:

- 1. MỌGAJI: Exploration into a Yorùbá Chieftaincy Tradition — A scholarly yet accessible exploration of Yorùbá chieftaincy, offering readers a profound understanding of a tradition that continues to shape community identity and leadership structures.
- 2. Reflections Off My Memory: A Book of Dozen Prose with Golden Dream-Poems — A literary collection blending reflective prose with evocative poetry, capturing the nuanced emotions and lived experiences that define the diaspora journey.

- 3. NIGERIA: A Different Look: Perceptions of An Elephant in the Room — A bold social commentary that challenges conventional narratives, inviting readers to engage critically with the complexities of Nigeria's sociopolitical landscape.

- 4. As Far As Eye Can See: Short Essays Inspired by My Grandfather's Farm in Yorùbáland — A deeply personal collection of essays rooted in the landscapes and lessons of ancestral Yorùbáland, celebrating the enduring wisdom passed down through generations.

Personal Commitment to the Diaspora

Beyond his professional and literary accomplishments, Dr. Yerokun remains deeply rooted in his personal and community life. Balancing ongoing development projects in Oyo State, Nigeria, with active participation in Georgia, he finds joy in pickleball, travel, and time with his wife, Olufunke Sanusi-Yerokun, their three adult children, and grandchildren.

Known affectionately as the "Mogaji of the Universe," Dr. Yerokun's ascent to the presidency is a testament to a lifetime of creating positive, systemic change. His leadership embodies the very best of what it means to serve one's community with integrity, wisdom, and love.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

THE STORY BEHIND TOCHI TALKS DIASPORA

ABOUT ME

My name is Tochi Medinus-Alegbe, Founder of TMED Media and Host and Executive Producer of Tochi Talks Diaspora, a platform where the African Diaspora Community tells their stories on their own terms, while celebrating our culture, heritage, and our contributions to society.

Originally from Imo State, Nigeria, I am a broadcast journalist, media entrepreneur, and cultural storyteller based in Atlanta, Georgia. After 14 years in American TV news, I took a bold step to build something of my own, a platform rooted in truth, culture, and representation.

MY JOURNEY

My journey in broadcast journalism began more than 14 years ago, rooted in a lifelong love for storytelling and writing. That passion brought me to America and into a world I gave everything to, and one that taught me more than I ever expected.

I started in 2011 as a freelance Production Assistant on the Dee Armstrong Show at WLTZ NBC38 in Columbus, Georgia. Within a year, I was producing Starting Today, the number one morning show in the market, directing, editing, and line-producing a three-hour live broadcast.

From there, I moved to WZDX FOX54 in Huntsville, Alabama, as the sole evening news producer, then to WAFF NBC48 as a Senior Producer, and eventually to WSB-TV in Atlanta, widely regarded as the number one station in America, where I produced the weekend midday newscast alongside CNN Award-winning anchor Sophia Choi.

My career was incredibly rewarding, but it came with real challenges. As a Black woman from Nigeria working in the American South, I was often the only African in the newsroom. I faced doubt, discrimination, and systemic racism, worked long overnight shifts without breaks, and had to navigate the impossible tension between motherhood and the demands of the job. There were many moments I considered walking away, but I kept going, earned respect, and built lifelong friendships along the way.

Over time, I grew increasingly troubled by how the African diaspora was portrayed in U.S. media. Our contributions to healthcare, education, business, and public service were rarely told. I often had to fight just to get positive stories about Africans into a newscast. Eventually, I stopped waiting for others to tell our stories and decided to build the platform to tell them ourselves.

That realization led to the birth of Tochi Talks Diaspora..

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

My career spans four TV markets and hundreds of hours of live broadcast television at some of the most respected stations in the country.

Since launching TMED Media, I have produced the Connecting One Million Women in Trade Conference in Lagos, Nigeria, a global initiative supported by the Lagos State Government and the United Nations. I co-hosted the Black History Festival organized by the Office of the President of Ghana. I hosted a welcome dinner for Osun State Governor Ademola Adeleke in Atlanta, bringing together Georgia State lawmakers and business leaders. I have worked alongside CNN journalist Stephanie Busari, Nigerian real estate mogul Dr. Kennedy Okonkwo, and many other influential voices across Africa and the diaspora.

MY VISION FOR TOCHI TALKS DIASPORA

Launched in April 2026, Tochi Talks Diaspora is a safe space where members of the African diaspora can tell their stories exactly as they want them told, while celebrating our culture, heritage, identity, and the impact we are making around the world.

Interestingly, I did not come up with the name. Years ago at WZDX FOX54, one of my anchors, Chase, told me that every time I spoke, he learned something new and jokingly suggested I start a show called "Tochi Talks." We laughed it off, but the name never left me.

When I finally decided to launch, my late uncle Bishop became one of my greatest supporters. He helped lay the foundation and encouraged me through every doubt. He is no longer here to see it, but his legacy lives through this platform, and I dedicate everything to him.

What excites me most is the diversity of stories this show will tell. Every guest is different, but every conversation is rooted in the same thing: our shared culture, heritage, and identity.

I am deeply grateful to everyone who has inspired and supported this journey, including my parents, mentors, pastor, colleagues, my Atlanta family, and especially my husband, whose unwavering belief in me has made this vision possible.

Through Tochi Talks Diaspora, my goal is simple: to create a home for African stories and ensure our voices are heard, respected, and celebrated around the world.

This is not just a show. It is the seat at the table I had to build myself, and I am just getting started.

(AIMCOLLECTIVE): BUILDING THE INFRASTRUCTURE AFRICAN IMMIGRANTS DESERVE

BORN FROM LIVED EXPERIENCE

The African Immigrant Collective was not built in a boardroom. It was conceived from a question that Nnamdi and Stella Ihenacho had lived personally: why, despite carrying advanced degrees, deep expertise, and enormous ambition, do so many African immigrants in the United States spend years underemployed, invisible in professional networks, and without a community that truly understands their journey?

That question became a calling. Together, Nnamdi and Stella founded AIM Collective in 2024, drawing on their own experiences navigating career transitions, cultural adjustment, and the particular silence of being a skilled professional in a country that does not yet know your name. From the start, the vision was specific: not a social club, not a vague support group, but a real infrastructure built to foster the economic advancement of African immigrants in the United States.

Today, AIM Collective is a federally recognized 501(c)(3) nonprofit headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, serving African immigrant professionals across the United States through workforce development, entrepreneurship training, civic engagement, and year-round community programming. The organization operates a volunteer network of more than 40 community leaders and has grown into one of the most active hubs for African immigrant professional development in the Southeast.

A COMMUNITY ECOSYSTEM THAT OPERATES YEAR-ROUND

What makes AIM Collective distinctive is not any single event or program. It is the totality of the ecosystem they have built, one that keeps members engaged, supported, and growing at every stage of their professional journey.

The weekly AIM Masterclass Series brings expert-led programming to the community every Saturday, covering in-demand topics across technology, finance, immigration law, entrepreneurship, and professional development. These sessions are virtual and accessible to members across the country, making high-quality professional education available without barriers of geography or cost.

The monthly AIM Immigration Clinic is among the most tangible expressions of AIM's commitment to the whole person. Held virtually and completely free to attendees, the clinic connects African immigrants to licensed immigration attorneys who provide direct guidance on visa pathways, work authorization, green card processes, naturalization, and other pressing legal questions. For a community where legal uncertainty is a daily reality, this resource is not a luxury. It is a lifeline.

AIM Connect, the organization's community mixer series, creates space for organic professional networking, peer connection, and the kind of relationship-building that cannot happen on a screen alone. These gatherings bring together professionals from across industries and backgrounds, united by a shared African immigrant identity and a shared commitment to building something meaningful in their adopted home.

THE CATALYST PROGRAMS: DEEP IMPACT, MEASURABLE CHANGE

The Catalyst Programs: Deep Impact, Measurable Change

At the core of AIM's programming model are the Catalyst Programs, a quarterly series of cohort-based intensive tracks that move participants through a structured pathway from career stability to professional leadership. All programs run six weeks, combine live instruction with mentorship and peer accountability, and are aligned to flagship events where participants celebrate milestones, expand their networks, and demonstrate their growth.

The Career Reboot Program serves immigrant professionals seeking to restart, pivot, or accelerate their careers in the United States. Participants receive intensive coaching on job search strategy, resume positioning, mock interviews, networking, and U.S. workplace culture.

The AIM Launchpad supports newly arrived immigrants as they navigate the critical first phase of life in America, providing foundational tools for professional integration, cultural orientation, and systems navigation.

The AIM Business Ignitor Program equips aspiring and early-stage entrepreneurs with everything they need to move from idea to infrastructure: business modeling, legal and tax structure, funding readiness, digital marketing, and access to mentors and advisors in their industry. The program recently launched in partnership with the Gwinnett Chamber Foundation, connecting participants to small business coaching, technology platforms, and grant opportunities.

The Leadership and Civic Engagement Accelerator prepares members for the next frontier: board service, policy influence, community organizing, and public leadership. Participants learn advocacy strategy, public speaking, civic engagement, and how to build the alliances necessary to shape the decisions that affect their communities.

FLAGSHIP CONFERENCES THAT SET THE AGENDA

Beyond its programs, AIM Collective hosts three flagship conferences each year that have become defining moments in the Atlanta diaspora calendar.

The AIM Women's Conference, held in March, is designed specifically for African immigrant women navigating the dual weight of cultural adjustment and professional ambition. In 2026, the conference welcomed more than 140 attendees for a day of career acceleration, mentorship, community, and inspiration. The Women's Conference serves as the capstone event for AIM's Career Reboot Program cohort, bringing the classroom into the broader professional community.

The AIM Policy and Advocacy Conference is one of the most forward-looking events in AIM's calendar. Scheduled for June 27, 2026 in Metro Atlanta, the conference convenes policymakers, civic leaders, legal experts, and community advocates to address the systemic challenges and opportunities facing African immigrants at the intersection of policy, workforce, and civic life. It is a space where the diaspora community moves from conversation to action, from visibility to influence. The 2026 conference is open for registration now.

The African Immigrant Professional and Entrepreneurship Summit is AIM's largest and most anticipated event of the year. The Summit drew over 500 registrants in 2025, with 220 attendees representing professionals from more than 12 African countries. It has become the premier gathering for African immigrant professionals, entrepreneurs, and civic leaders in the Southeast, offering keynote addresses, multi-track programming, panel discussions, business showcases, and the AIM Impact Gala, where the community's most impactful leaders are recognized and celebrated.

In 2026, the Summit expands to a full three-day format over Labor Day Weekend, September 4 through 6, in Atlanta. This year's theme is Builder Year, and the programming will be more ambitious than ever: simultaneous Cataly Program tracks running live across all four areas, a career fair, a main stage with national speakers, and the AIM Impact Gala with a full reception and celebration. The Summit is open to professionals, entrepreneurs, students, and community members across the diaspora.

WHAT IS COMING THIS SUMMER

AIM Collective invites the broader Nigerian and African community in Georgia to two flagship events in the months ahead.

The AIM Policy and Advocacy Conference takes place on June 27, 2026 in Metro Atlanta. This year's conference focuses on the policy landscape shaping the future of African immigrants in the United States, including workforce equity, immigration reform, civic participation, and economic inclusion. The conference is an ideal setting for professionals, business owners, organizational leaders, and anyone who believes that community advocacy and economic empowerment are inseparable. Early registration is open at africanimmigrantcollective.org.

The African Immigrant Professional and Entrepreneurship Summit and Gala takes place September 4 through 6, 2026 in Atlanta, over Labor Day Weekend. Three days of programming, networking, learning, and community. Whether you are a mid-career professional looking to accelerate, an entrepreneur ready to scale, a student preparing for your next chapter, or a civic leader building for the long term, the Summit was designed for you. Tickets are available at africanimmigrantcollective.org.

A WORD FROM THE FOUNDER

"We built AIM because African immigrants deserve more than survival in America. They deserve a runway. A real infrastructure. A community that holds them accountable and celebrates how far they have come. Everything we have built, from the weekly Masterclass to the Summit stage, is a reflection of that belief."

— Nnamdi Ihenacho, Founder and Executive Director, African Immigrant Collective

ONE YOUTH ONE MENTOR LAUNCHES IN KENYA

Empowering 705 Girls Through Education, Dignity, and Opportunity

On March 14, 2026, the One Youth One Mentor initiative reached a major milestone as it expanded from Nigeria into Kenya, launching its second African chapter at Embakasi Girls High School in Mukuru kwa Njenga, Nairobi. The event, organized by If I Were XYZ, Inc. in partnership with Phone Place Kenya and Romano Media, focused on addressing menstrual health challenges, educational access, and youth empowerment for girls.

Key Impact Highlights

The outreach program delivered measurable results:

- 705 girls received sanitary pads and personal hygiene kits.
- Each student received enough menstrual hygiene supplies to cover two school terms.
- Five students were awarded tuition scholarships.
- One student received a full comprehensive scholarship.
- Three students were selected to receive school shoes in May 2026.
- An official If I Were XYZ Club was established at the school to provide ongoing mentorship and leadership development opportunities.

ADDRESSING A CRITICAL BARRIER TO EDUCATION

The initiative was built around a simple but powerful belief: no girl should miss school because she lacks access to menstrual hygiene products. By providing long term sanitary support, organizers sought to reduce absenteeism, improve academic participation, and restore dignity to young women facing economic challenges.

The program positioned menstrual health support not as charity, but as a practical investment in educational success and future opportunity.

LEADERSHIP AND COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP

The event was led by Engr. Cornelius Ani, Executive Director of If I Were XYZ, Inc., who traveled from the United States to participate directly in the launch. He spoke with students about the global vision behind One Youth One Mentor and emphasized the importance of education, mentorship, and access to essential resources.

Local leadership played a critical role as well. Ms. Jeruto Mukiri, Kenya Country Representative for If I Were XYZ, helped coordinate the initiative and strengthen community engagement. Corporate partner Phone Place Kenya also contributed support, demonstrating the impact that private sector partnerships can have on youth development.

VOICES OF INSPIRATION

Students were encouraged by several speakers who focused on resilience, self-confidence, discipline, and mentorship. The event also attracted notable Kenyan public figures and social media personalities, helping amplify the message of girls' empowerment and educational opportunity beyond the school community.

SCHOLARSHIPS THAT CHANGE LIVES

Beyond the distribution of hygiene products, scholarship awards represented one of the most significant outcomes of the day. For students in underserved communities, financial support can mean the difference between remaining in school and dropping out. The scholarships awarded during the event provided immediate educational security and long-term hope for recipients and their families.

BUILDING A SUSTAINABLE LEGACY

A major long-term achievement of the event was the creation of the If I Were XYZ Club at Embakasi Girls High School. Beginning in May 2026, the club will serve as a student-led platform focused on mentorship, leadership, personal development, and community service. This ensures that the impact of the event continues long after the initial outreach concludes.

LOOKING AHEAD

Organizers view the Nairobi launch as the beginning of a broader East African expansion. Planned follow up activities include mentorship engagement, scholarship support, club leadership elections, and Kenya's participation in the upcoming One Youth One Mentor conference. The organization also announced its intention to continue expanding across the continent, with South Africa identified as the next destination.

ONE YOUTH ONE MENTOR LAUNCHES IN NIGERIA, Connecting More Than 300 Students to a World of Opportunities.

The One Youth One Mentor (OYOM) campaign achieved a landmark milestone on March 6, 2026, with its official launch at Anglican Girls' Grammar School in Enugu, Nigeria. What began as a single day youth empowerment event quickly evolved into a growing movement, attracting more than 308 student registrations from seven secondary schools and generating momentum that continued well beyond the event itself.

TRANSFORMING PROMISE INTO OPPORTUNITY

The initiative, organized through a partnership between If I Were XYZ, Inc. and UYOTA, was designed to connect African youth with experienced professionals who can provide mentorship, career guidance, and personal development support. The program's theme, "One Youth. One Mentor. Unlimited Possibilities," resonated strongly with students eager to gain access to opportunities and networks that might otherwise be unavailable to them.

IMPRESSIVE LAUNCH RESULTS

The event delivered immediate and measurable impact:

- More than 308 students registered for mentorship opportunities.
- Seven secondary schools participated.
- Students expressed interest across more than 15 career fields.
- Four hours of educational programming were conducted.
- Multiple prizes were awarded, including a sewing machine, a laptop, ₦100,000 cash award, and ₦50,000 educational support grant.
- Student registrations continued increasing after the event through word-of-mouth referrals.

LEADERSHIP THROUGH ACTION

A key highlight of the event was the presence of Engr. Cornelius Ani, Executive Director of If I Were XYZ, Inc., who traveled from Atlanta, Georgia to Enugu to personally participate in the launch. His attendance underscored the organization's commitment to investing directly in the next generation of African leaders.

The collaboration between If I Were XYZ, Inc. and UYOTA demonstrated the power of international partnerships that combine global resources with local expertise to create sustainable opportunities for youth development.

CAREER ASPIRATIONS REVEAL FUTURE POTENTIAL

Registration data provided valuable insight into students' ambitions. Healthcare professions emerged as the most popular field, with more than 180 students expressing interest in careers such as medicine, nursing, and pharmacy. Technology, engineering, agriculture, business, law, and creative industries were also strongly represented.

The results highlighted a significant need for additional volunteer mentors, particularly healthcare professionals, to meet the growing demand among participating students.

MORE THAN A ONE DAY EVENT

Beyond the launch, organizers have already begun preparing for mentor matching, profile verification, and ongoing engagement activities. Students will be paired with mentors based on career interests, expertise, and compatibility, creating long-term relationships designed to support educational and professional growth.

EXPANDING ACROSS AFRICA

The success of the Enugu launch has established a strong foundation for continental expansion. Organizers announced that the next phase of the program will take place at Embakasi Girls High School in Nairobi, Kenya, where more than 700 girls are expected to benefit from mentorship opportunities and educational support services.

KEY TAKEAWAY

The Enugu launch demonstrated that African youth are eager for mentorship, guidance, and meaningful opportunities to pursue their dreams. By connecting students with experienced professionals around the world, One Youth One Mentor is creating pathways that can influence careers, strengthen communities, and produce lasting generational impact.

EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES AT HOME AND ABROAD: THE INCREDIBLE IMPACT OF UAG

Have you ever wondered how much a single act of kindness can change a life? When we come together with a shared vision, the ripples of our efforts can reach across oceans. The Urhobo Association of Georgia (UAG) has been doing exactly that, proving that we truly are empowering communities, one act of kindness at a time. Let's explore this together and look at the incredible ways our collective dedication has transformed lives both here in Georgia and back home in Nigeria.

GLOBAL COMPASSION: SUPPORTING ORPHANAGES IN DELTA STATE

For children growing up in vulnerable circumstances, a stable environment makes all the difference in the world. UAG proudly extended its hands across the Atlantic to support multiple orphanages in Delta State. By partnering together, we focused heavily on enhancing daily living, secure shelter, and continuous education for these wonderful youth.

We believe in investing deeply in their future rather than just dropping off temporary aid. A major milestone in this international outreach was the successful installation of a reliable 3.5KVA solar power lighting system. This sustainable energy solution was brought directly to the Madam Davis Buwa Memorial Children's Home, located at N° 2 Adagbon Lane, Off Commercial Avenue in Sapele. Imagine the pure joy and safety this brings to the children now that they have consistent electricity to study and play.

I'll show you exactly how your generosity filled their pantry and secured their peace of mind:

Targeted Care: We provided critical, direct support to Testimony Orphanage in Sapele, Madam Davis Buwa Orphanage in Sapele, and Dominion Life Orphanage in Ovorie/Ovu.

Essential Provisions: Our teams delivered massive piles of vital supplies, including essential bags of rice, cooking oil, boxes of Cornflakes, and Miksi or Mikat products.

Future Foundations: Your contributions directly funded the payment of crucial school fees and building rent to ensure uninterrupted learning and safe shelter.

LOCAL POWER: THE WOMEN IN SHELTER INITIATIVE

Closer to home, our mission to lift individuals facing severe life crises remains just as vibrant. On Saturday, November 22, 2025, from 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM, UAG joined forces in a powerful domestic collaboration. We partnered with the Urhobo Progress Union of North America to launch the critical Women in Shelter Initiative. Together, we observed a National Day of Giving to support resilient women experiencing homelessness and crisis challenges across North America.

Our collaborative give back event took place locally at MHFV, located at 8995 Roswell Road in Sandy Springs, Georgia. Thanks to an outpouring of teamwork, the building was packed to the ceiling with critical supplies. The funds and deep community awareness raised during this drive give these women a real chance to access life changing resources, restore their dignity, and regain long term stability.

Look at the incredible stockpile of care items your teamwork brought together:

Dignity & Comfort: Volunteers sorted and distributed clothing, dignity kits, and vital hygiene items like Bath Tissue to those in immediate need.

Household Essentials: The drive successfully gathered crucial home cleaning agents to support safe living, including large quantities of Lysol, Clorox, Tide, and Fabuloso.

Nutritional Support: We packed the shelter shelves with healthy snacks and drinks, including boxes of Cheez-It, Planters Variety Packs, SunnyD, CapriSun, Frito-Lay Classic Mixes, and BelVita.

Empowerment Pillars: Beyond immediate relief, this initiative helps provide lines of secure housing aid, professional counseling, and vital legal aid.

ABOUT SIKA'S COUTURE AND WHAT MAKES US UNIQUE.

Sika's Couture is a brand that celebrates the richness of African culture through authentic, handmade clothing, jewelry, and accessories. What makes us unique is our commitment to quality craftsmanship, traditional African textiles, and the stories behind each piece. Every item is carefully designed to blend cultural heritage with contemporary fashion, allowing our customers to embrace African elegance in their everyday style.

WHAT INSPIRED ME TO START SIKA'S COUTURE?

My inspiration comes from a deep love for African artistry and a desire to share our vibrant heritage with the world. I noticed a gap in the market for truly authentic, handmade African fashion that goes beyond mass-produced prints. I wanted to create a brand that not only showcases African craftsmanship but also supports local artisans and tells the stories behind each design.

HOW DO WE ENSURE AUTHENTICITY IN OUR PRODUCTS?

We work directly with skilled artisans across Africa who use traditional techniques and locally sourced materials. Every piece is handcrafted, ensuring that it maintains the authenticity and uniqueness of African heritage. We also prioritize fair trade and ethical sourcing, making sure that our artisans are fairly compensated for their work.

WHO IS OUR TARGET AUDIENCE?

Our target audience includes individuals who appreciate cultural fashion, love bold and unique statement pieces, and value sustainability. Whether it's fashion-forward individuals looking for standout pieces, people with African heritage wanting to connect with their roots, or customers seeking ethically made fashion, Sika's Couture caters to a diverse range of clients.

HOW DO WE INCORPORATE AFRICAN CULTURE INTO OUR DESIGNS?

We use authentic African textiles like Ankara, Kente, and Mudcloth, Aso Oke, Adire and incorporate traditional beadwork and embroidery techniques. Each piece is inspired by African history, symbols, and storytelling. We also collaborate with artisans from different regions to highlight the diversity within African fashion.

WHERE CAN CUSTOMERS PURCHASE OUR PRODUCTS?

Customers can shop through our online store, visit our physical location by appointment or find us at select pop-up markets and fashion events. We also offer worldwide shipping, making it easy for anyone to own a piece of authentic African fashion.

WHAT CHALLENGES HAVE WE FACED AS ENTREPRENEURS IN THE FASHION INDUSTRY?

One of the biggest challenges has been educating consumers about the value of handmade African fashion versus fast fashion. Many people don't realize the time, skill, and craftsmanship that go into each piece. Another challenge has been scaling production while maintaining authenticity, as every item is handcrafted.

HOW DO WE STAY COMPETITIVE IN THE FASHION INDUSTRY?

We differentiate ourselves through authenticity, quality, and storytelling. Our customers are not just buying clothing—they're embracing a piece of African culture. We also stay ahead by engaging with our audience on social media, collaborating with influencers, and continuously innovating our designs while staying true to our cultural roots.

WHAT ADVICE DO WE HAVE FOR SOMEONE LOOKING TO START A FASHION BRAND?

Stay true to your vision and be patient. The fashion industry is competitive, but if you focus on authenticity, quality, and storytelling, your brand will stand out. Also, build strong relationships with artisans, customers, and industry professional networking is key to growing a successful brand.

WHAT'S NEXT FOR SIKA'S COUTURE?

We're working on expanding our collection with new designs that fuse tradition with modern fashion trends. We're also looking at collaborations with African designers and possibly opening physical locations to bring Sika's Couture to a wider audience. Our goal is to continue sharing African fashion with the world while uplifting the artisans behind it.

Thank You for Celebrating With Us!

To our esteemed guests,

Thank you for joining us on Saturday March 28, as we celebrated Eko Club Atlanta's 25th Anniversary. Your presence truly made the evening special and meaningful.

It was an honor to gather in celebration of our shared heritage, unity, and the impact we have built together over the years. A special highlight of the evening was recognizing and honoring individuals whose contributions have helped shape and strengthen our community. Celebrating these achievements alongside you made the moment even more memorable.

We are also deeply grateful for your generous donations and continued support. Your contributions play a vital role in helping us sustain and expand our impact within the community.

From the energy in the room to the beautiful display of culture and connection, the night would not have been the same without you. We look forward to many more years of growth, service, and celebration together.

Blessings,

Eko Club Atlanta

REFLECTING ON 2025: TWO EVENTS, ONE UNBREAKABLE COMMUNITY

The year 2025 closed on a high note for ANOG, bookended by two signature events that showcased the breadth, resilience, and enduring spirit of our community. From the vibrant spectacle of Nigeria Cultural Day to the innovative intimacy of our Year-End Young Adult Celebration, these gatherings affirmed a truth we hold dear: when Nigerians unite, extraordinary things happen.

Nigeria Cultural Day — October 11, 2025

Marking our 15th edition and a bold transition from DeKalb to a new venue in Clayton County, this year's Cultural Day was a triumph of collective will. Many gathered to celebrate heritage, health, and harmony—and the day belonged to everyone who made it so.

We owe a profound debt of gratitude to Chairwoman Dr. Alieka Anderson-Henry of Clayton County, whose presence in traditional African attire, warm engagement with vendors and guests, and inspiring remarks signaled a powerful partnership between government and diaspora. Her endorsement amplified our voice and legitimized our mission in meaningful new ways. Equally, our thanks extend to the Nigerian Consulate staff under Consul General, Amb. Auwalu Jega Namadina—Mrs. Miriam “Mimi” Udeozo (Head of Chancery), Madam Jane Okocha (Head of Consular Section), and Mr. Abubakar Othman, Consul (ICE)—whose diplomatic grace fostered cross-cultural dialogue and reinforced the vital bond with the Motherland.

Heartfelt thanks go to the nine member associations that exceeded expectations by contributing above and beyond the mandatory/required dues: Orlu Regional, Akure Oloyemekun, Eko Club Atlanta, Nigerian Nursing Association of Georgia, NWAG, Yorubas of Atlanta, Urhobo Association of Georgia, The Nubians, and Zumunta. Your generosity is the living embodiment of “Naija no dey carry last.” To all our member associations, your continued commitment—through prompt dues payment and wholehearted participation—remains the backbone of ANOG.

Our vendors brought color, aroma, and commerce to the celebration. We heard your unvarnished and candid feedback on logistical concerns—setup timing, booth placement, and foot-traffic flow—and we are committed to implementing improvements for 2026. Your partnership is valued, and we are determined to ensure optimal visibility and success for every vendor next time.

The Planning Committee, chaired with extraordinary poise by Madam Stella McAnthony Egbedya (NNAG), sacrificed months of Sundays to bring this day to life. Madam Chair also dazzled as Master of Ceremonies, keeping the program seamless and spirited. Every subcommittee and volunteer—Logistics, Children's Village, Health Fair (with free screenings from the Nigerian Nursing Association and flu shots from Walgreens in collaboration with NWAG), Food & Picnic, Entertainment, Music by DJ Sly, Hospitality, and more—performed with distinction. A special salute to young Ellen-Blessed Wilson, whose flawless dual national anthem renditions captured every heart.

Our sponsors and benefactors provided the financial foundation: Helen Edomoiya (FEHE Enterprises), Olaleye Akinyelure (Sabolak Suite Shortlet Rentals), Rufina Noragbon (Health Source Agency), Joy Enagbare (Allstate), CNU Medical, and generous families including Ebodaghe, Ibebunjo, Adekunle, Osunde, Etta, Ngoddy family, and many others. Thank you for weaving your generosity into the fabric of our success.

The ANOG Executive Committee led from the front: First Lady Mrs. Sumbo (Mosun) Adekunle conducted exhaustive site inspections and tirelessly liaised with officials; VP Mrs. Theresa Abak Ibebunjo flew in from Nigeria, orchestrated the backdrop, and spearheaded fundraising; PRO Mr. Saheed Adeleye arrived in work gloves and showed compassion in action; and Social Director, Dr. Star—after thirteen years of service—arrived on time, stayed until the end, and ensured every guest felt cared for.

Year-End Young Adult Celebration — November 15, 2025

In a historic departure from the traditional End of Year Independence Banquet Awards, ANOG entrusted the year-end celebration to our Young Adults committee, curating an intimate program that blended innovation with heritage. Musical performances spanning Nigeria's diverse regions, engaging word games, a captivating catwalk, and activities bridging generations filled the evening—proof that even in a modified format, our community's heartbeat remains strong.

While attendance fell short of projections, the joy and connection on the floor were undeniable. We extend deepest gratitude to every attendee and “young at heart” supporter who purchased tickets and believed in this initiative. To the dedicated volunteers who invested countless weeks into planning—thank you. Special recognition goes to Another Chance Inc. for their flexibility in accommodating our date and providing the event hall.

We commend Event Chair, Ms. Oluwaseyi Henrietta George, who navigated complex logistics while privately enduring profound family grief. Her dignity, composure, and unwavering dedication when thoughts of giving up may have crossed her mind, decided in putting community need above personal trepidation, is the very definition of servant leadership that ANOG stands for. Post-event insights from the planning committee are documented and will guide refinements for future Young Adults programming.

To every attendee, volunteer, sponsor, vendor, leader, and partner: thank you. Two events, one community, one unbreakable bond. Let us carry the momentum of 2025 into a promising 2026—with Cultural Day on September 26 and the Banquet Awards on October 24. All hands on deck.

With deepest appreciation and boundless optimism.

Kayode Adekunle, President, Alliance of Nigerian Organizations in Georgia (ANOG)

IN MEMORIAM
HONORING OUR DEPARTED

It is with heavy hearts and profound respect that the Alliance of Nigerian Organizations in Georgia (ANOG) dedicates this quarter’s In Memoriam section to two pillars of our community whose lives embodied service, dignity, and the enduring spirit of our people. Their passing leaves a void in our ranks, yet their legacies remain woven into the fabric of our collective journey.

DR. MICHAEL K. ADELEYE
(FEBRUARY 7, 1948 – FEBRUARY 1, 2026)

We mourn the loss of Dr. Michael K. Adeleye, a distinguished member of our community and the beloved husband of Mrs. Ronke Adeleye, a long-standing and dedicated executive member of ANOG. Dr. Adeleye’s life was a testament to quiet strength and unwavering support for the organizations that define our identity. His presence behind the scenes of our leadership has been a steady force, and his sudden departure in early 2026 marks the end of an era for many who knew him. We extend our deepest condolences to Mrs. Adeleye and the entire Adeleye family, reminding them that they remain in the prayers of the ANOG family.

MRS. EGO OKAFOR (1959 – 2025)

We also remember Mrs. Ego Okafor, a woman of grace and resilience, and the wife of Dr. Martin Okafor, a celebrated recipient of the ANOG Image Award. Her life was intertwined with the triumphs and milestones of our community, standing as a supportive partner to a leader who has significantly contributed to our cultural pride. While she departed in 2025, her memory continues to inspire the families she left behind and the community that cherished her. We honor her life by continuing the work of unity and excellence she stood for alongside her husband. As we reflect on their contributions, we are reminded of the fragility of life and the importance of cherishing one another. Let us carry their memories forward by supporting their families and upholding the values of unity and service they represented.

Rest in Peace

ANOG PURPOSE STATEMENT

Alliance of Nigerian Organizations in Georgia is established with the overarching objective of fostering unity, advancing welfare, and championing the rich cultural heritage of Africans, particularly Nigerians, in Georgia and beyond. Our mission is anchored on the following principles:

- 01 Promotion of Unity: Our primary goal is to promote unity among Nigerians, both in Georgia and elsewhere. We believe in the strength of unity in diversity and work towards amalgamating all Nigerians in Atlanta into an indivisible and indissoluble family.
- 02 Championing Nigerian Culture: We are dedicated to advocating, protecting, and advancing the vibrant Nigerian culture, ensuring its appreciation and transmission to future generations.
- 03 Advancement of Welfare: We are committed to the welfare of Nigerians, creating pathways for progress and opportunities to uplift every Nigerian.
- 04 Political Awareness & Civic Responsibility: ANOG strives to cultivate political awareness and instill a strong sense of civic responsibility among Nigerians, empowering them to be active participants in their communities.
- 05 Harmony and Peace: Promoting harmony and peaceful coexistence within various ethnic groups is vital to our vision, ensuring an environment where everyone thrives.
- 06 Financial Stewardship: We responsibly receive, invest, and disburse funds and hold property to further the objectives of our corporation.
- 07 Compliance and Activities: All our activities adhere to the guidelines of the Georgia non-profit corporation. We aim to explore every avenue that aligns with our mission without contravening established regulations.
- 08 Collaborative Relations: We actively seek to relate with other organizations, establishing synergies in areas of common interest, ensuring that the Nigerian community stands united.
- 09 Networking: We are determined to cultivate and establish productive networks at local, regional, national, and international levels, maximizing opportunities for collaboration and shared growth.
- 10 Organizational Profile & Leadership: ANOG offers a platform to enhance and elevate the profile of member organizations, providing opportunities to exercise civic leadership in the broader community.
- 11 Image Enhancement: We support programs that positively portray and enhance the image of Nigeria as a whole, debunking myths and showcasing our nation's beauty and potential.
- 12 Information Access: At ANOG, we provide access to vital information concerning Nigerians, utilizing multiple mediums to ensure our community is well-informed and connected.
